

RE: Red Pill

These mainstream media guys are very talented at spinning the argument still giving themselves a little credibility by lacing in some light truth.

Schumer, Pelosi, Waters, McCain etc, are some of the most ridiculous people I can imagine, and god only knows how any of them held their seats.

I have been trying to understand this turmoil for the last year and I think I finally have some conclusions. I have come to believe that it is not about left or right-wing politics, or globalism or multiculturalism or any of the other popular battle cries, these are just the useful idiots of the real problem. I now believe it is simple organized crime, by powerful but morally weak and freighted people who, despite their massive wealth, feel a need to stack the deck beyond recognition. Furthermore, I believe that this is an international criminal organization that has infiltrated our United Nations, the EU, Canada, the USA and every other country they can get the teeth into. Morally depraved political figures worldwide and in our local municipalities (under UN 21), see themselves as either sheep or wolves and sign on to this international crime ring. There is a big problem with the UN's 21/2030 agenda, and in this respect, they gone directly counter their original scope and purpose. This plan is basically communism or hard socialism and it just doesn't work without forced conformity within a very toxic and corrupt hierarchy. Few of us would think that are there people in our communities who would forcibly subjugate or even kill others to further a totalitarian system, but this is our world history. The existing EU has become one big Ponzi scheme that most member states probably wish they had never invested in. These countries would all want their borders back and to control their own destiny, and not be ruled (I did not say governed) by an unaccountable syndicate, if it were not for the media brain washing going on. Unfortunately, most all of the mainstream news outlets are obviously under the complete control of this sick and damaged bunch of international criminals. By the same token, this UN Agenda 21/2030 is simply stealing equity from the masses and consolidating it for the personal and private use of this international criminal organization. To that end, we have the poor Arabs who are so easily persuaded to destroy their own homes and culture, the Antifa psychopaths and of course our own highly corrupted politicians, none of whom understand who they are really working for or the long term consequences of their actions. There is no altruism here, these criminals and their allies have invested in a war, so they can sweep in and buy up entire countries for pennies on the dollar. Every one of these guys needs to be locked up along with all their pet politicians. Make no mistake 25 billion dollars buys 25000 national and "local" politicians or .org's at $1000000 each, and that is chump change for this crime ring. So now we are told that Free Speech is Hate Speech and it is OK to destroy anyone who says otherwise, a beautiful world they are building with such high ideals. The EU and Canada have no 1st or 2nd Amendments and they are dearly lacking for them because it's not a matter of if but when war will break out, and guess who has all the weapons, the criminal gangs funded by this criminal syndicate. I'm praying that the USA, and the world, has caught this thing in time because Europe will be a bloody mess in a few more years.

Best case you can make for the EU is that their management has been grossly incompetent. Worst case is that Junkers and his criminal allies will happily preside over WW3, very soon.

This has been going on for more than 2000 years, and some of our human intellects' have not improved one bit. There is certainly a heaven on earth, but it is a result of personal growth and realization, not the dictates of an antichrist. For those of you who still don't understand what we are dealing with, please report to your closest UN 21 compliant city and you will see all you need to know.

This is as nice as I can be, and I am just glad I only recently discovered this treason because the Obamanation would have killed me for sure 😊
